Eeee Numb. 1977.

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, June 19. 1708.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated June 19.

Vienna, June 6.

GENERAL Heister is gone Poſt for Gratz. Prince Eugene of Savoy went Poſt from hence the 4th Inſtant for the Moſelle, accompany'd by three young Counts or Princes of Soiſſons his Nephews, the Count de Rabutin, and another Adjutant-General. Letters from Sigeth of the 18th of laſt Month adviſe, that 50 Robbers got together in a Body, march'd about the Country, and ſummon'd all the Villages within the dependance of Sigeth to pay them large Sums on pain of Military Execution; on Notice of which the Governour of Sigeth ſent out a Party of his Garriſon in queſt of them: That Party meeting with them, charg'd and kill'd ſeveral of them, took 9 Priſoners, and diſpers'd the reſt. What is remarkable in this Action, is, that a Party of the Malecontents joyn'd ours to clear the Country of theſe Robbers. We have receiv'd advice, that the Tranſports which were ſent from Fiume with Troops for the Kingdom of Naples, are arriv'd ſafe at Manfredonia, the firſt Convoy in 6 Days, the laſt in 4: Upon this encouragement, the Imperial Commiſſary-General will continue to ſend by that commodious and ſpeedy Way the reſt of the Recruits and new Levies rais'd for for that Kingdom.

Vienna, June 6 'Laſt Monday the Britiſh Envoy at this Court, Sir Philip Meadows, Riding 'up a Bank to give way to a Cart in a narrow 'Lane, where the Driver could not make Way for 'him, his Horſe fell back with him among the 3 'Cart Horſes; his own Horſe trod on his Face and 'Neck and bruis'd his Eye. But he is like to do 'very well of it.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated June 22.

Vienna, June 9. Prince Philip of Heſſe-Darmſtad, Major-General, ſet out from hence Yeſterday for Naples, to take on him the Command of the Troops in that Kingdom, in the Room of the Count de Thaun, whom at the deſire of the Duke of Savoy the Emperour has order'd to go and Command the Imperial Troops in Piemont. Cardinal Grimani will ſpeedily go from Rome to Naples, to take on him the Viceroyalty, till the arrival of the Empreſs Dowager; but 'tis not known when ſhe will be going thither. The Count de Villa-Major, Ambaſſador Extraordinary of Portugal, made his publick Entrance into this City the 7th Inſtant, with very great Magnificence: Yeſterday he had publick Audience of their Imperial Majeſties and the Arch-Dutcheſſes. The 7th the Envoy of the Biſhop of Munſter had Audience of the Emperour, and is within a few Days to receive the Inveſtiture of that Biſhoprick for his Maſter, the difficulties which had till now retarded that Ceremony being remov'd. There is nothing new from Hungary, except that a Captain of the Regiment of Hanover, being detach'd with 300 Horſe after a Party of Malecontents who had carry'd off ſome Cattle, was ſurrounded and defeated by 4000 Malecontents. The Captain himſelf and 12 of his Men retir'd to Hungarian Altenburg; but he having receiv'd 17 Wounds, his Recovery is doubted.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated June 22.

Grenoble, June 12. The 6th Inſtant the Marſhal de Villars arriv'd here, and was welcom'd with Salvoes of Artillery. The 7th he view'd our Fortifications: And Yeſterday he ſet out from hence to view the Frontiers. He will begin with Exilles and Feneſtrelles, and thence will go by the way of Embrun to Provence, to view the Lines along the Var.

Antwerp, June 22. The 20th in the Evening arriv'd in this City the Electoral Prince of Hanover, who was immediately waited on and complimented by the Marquis de Terracena Governour of our Citadel, and by our Magiſtrates. Yeſterday Morning the latter made him the honorary Preſent of Wine, as uſual to Perſons of his Quality. He ſets out to Morrow for the Army of the Allies.

Hague, June 22. 'The Alteration of the Project concerted here, for Prince Eugene's acting ſeperately on the Moſelle, is no longer a ſecret. The 'Duke of Marlborough by an Expreſs, ſent ſeveral 'Days ago to Prince Eugene at Vienna, deſir'd him, 'that as ſoon as the Army on the Moſelle ſhould be 'ready to March, his Highneſs would lead them 'towards the Maeſe: And thoſe 2 Princes are to 'act Joyntly and in Concert, according to a new 'Deſign which my Lord Duke has form'd. They 'write from Vienna, that his Imperial Majeſty had 'at the Inſtance of the Duke of Savoy, advanc'd to 'his Royal Highneſs 100000 Piſtoles, for the Subſiſtence of the Imperial Troops that are to ſerve 'with him this Campaign: And that the King of 'Denmark had ſent Order to his Troops in Bavaria, 'not to march to Hungary, till the Troops of the Circle 'of Lower Saxony ſhould all withdraw out of the 'Territory of Hamburg: Which conſidering the 'preſent circumſtances of Affairs in Hungary, has 'put the Imperial Court into no little perplexity.

Falmouth, June 14. This Day was ſent in by the Neptune, Buſtingburg and young Abram-Privateers of Flushing, the Jacob of Rochel as Prize from Martenico, with 900 Hogſheads of Sugar.

Plymouth June 15. Yeſterday Sir George Byng in the Royal Anne, Sir John Jennings in the Triumph were off this Harbour, and lay by until they had taken on board 180 Marines. And this Morning they ſail'd with the reſt of the Fleet.

Harwich, June 17. Yeſterday arriv'd the Falmouth one of the Convoys to the Hamborough Fleet who are paſs'd by for the River, being about 40 Ships.

Deale, June 17. This Morning the Advice and Woolwich came in here, and are now preparing to ſail to the Weſtward with all the outward-bound Ships, Wind at N.

London, June 19.

On Tueſday arriv'd a Mail from Lisbon, with Letters dated the 31ſt of May.

Lisbon, May 31. 'The Portugueſe Army is encamp'd with the Right on the other ſide of the 'Caya, and the Left at the Goudigna. The Enemy are poſted with their Right at the Bridge of 'Xevora, and the Left at Fort St. Chriſtopher: 'And the Duke d'Oſſuna having reinforc'd them 'with the Garriſons of Serpa and Moura, and 2 'Regiments of Horſe from Andalouſia, they are ſuperiour to the Portugueſe by 600 Horſe: The Portugueſe have fortified their Camp, and plac'd 20 'Cannon in the Front of it, there being only a Plain 'between the two Armies. 'Tis hop'd that Don 'Sancho de Faro, who commands in the lower Beira, will make a Diverſion againſt the Enemy by 'the Way of Sierra de Gata.

London, June 19.

Yeſterday Captain Thomas Smith, who was ſome time ago taken in one of the Enemy's Ships of War commanded by himſelf, was drawn on a Sledge to Execution Dock, and there executed as a Traitor.

True Spectacles and Reading-Glasses made to the greatest Perfection, by the use of which young Persons may preserve their Sight to the greatest Age, and which from the Critical Clearness of the Glass and Truth of the Work supply the want of Natural strength, preserve and to assist the weakest Eyes so much as to render the Person capable of doing the finest of Work, and Reading the smallest Print. It is to be observ'd that a weak Sight suffers more in one year without them it will in 4 with the use of these Spectacles, they being ground on true Brass Tools, according to the approv'd Method of the Royal Society. But the common sort of Spectacles being ground on false Iron Tools, and made of a darkish or else of green Glass, are so far from preserving that they are really injurious to the Sight. Telescopes made to so great a perfection that a small one for the Pocket will take in a larger Angle, discover things at the remotest distance, and make them appear as near as most of large common ones of 4 Foot long; by the assistance of which small Telescope you may tell what a Clock it is by such a Dial as Bow or St James's above 2 Miles, and other Objects though at 20 or 30 Miles distance proportionable; it being the pleasantest and usefullest Instrument of this kind, and so esteem'd by Gentlemen that some have bought 2, 4, and 6, one after another. These with all sorts of Microscopes of the newest and best Improvement, Prospective-Glasses and other Curiosities, are Made and Sold by G Willdey and T. Brandreth at the Archimedes and Globe in Ludgate-street, the corner next St. Paul's.
